ANOTHER COBB CONTROVERSY

Is Ty Cobb out or is he safe? Umpire Connolly ruled that Midkiff did not touch T. B. with the ball when he slid on this steal of third in the second inning yesterday, though Gossett's throw reached the young guardian of the sack when Cobb had several feet to go. As will be seen, Ty Cobb also kicked up quite a physical fuss.

Rucker May Go to Cubs for Bresnahan

CHICAGO, June 12.—There is a persistent rumor afloat in Chicago to the effect that efforts are being made by President Murphy of the Cubs and Ebbets of Brooklyn to put over a trade. Murphy is after Nap Rucker, and it is understood he is willing to trade Roger Bresnahan but Ebbets cannot see the deal that way. It is understood he is willing to part with one of his other pitchers for Roger. Murphy denies that there is any deal on. The two were in conference today.

CUBS READ RUCKER LIKE AN OPEN BOOK

MAN IN TINKER TRADE AIDS Humphries, From Red, Manages to Keep Seven Bingles Wide Apart.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Nap Rucker, star twirler of Bill Dahlen's Dodgers, was counted by the Cubs today. He lost his game by a score of 6 to 1. The Cubs got him for thirteen times, six of which were in the first two innings. Bert Humphries, one of the men obtained from the Reds in the Tinker trade, pitched superb ball for the Cubs and held his opponents to seven runs on only two of which were bingles. It was the bunching of these two bingles in the third inning, a double by Miller and a single by Moran, combined with the catcher's sac, that put the Cubs in the lead. The long run looked by the Dodgers.

TRIPLE PLAY ENDS RED RALLY.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Washington won an exciting game from Chicago by a score of 3 to 2. The Braves entered their half of the ninth inning and when they emerged had the game tucked under their belt. The final score being 3 to 2. The Reds went after the game in their half of the same inning and succeeded in getting two men on bases with no one out through singles by Almeida and Groh. Berghammer, next man up, lined to Marvianville, and a triple play ensued, ending the game. Berghammer played short in place of Manager Tucker, who was suspended for his run in with Knabe yesterday. The score.

NOTES OF THE DIAMOND.

It may be as Morgan says that the Pirates are the team the Giants have to beat, but they have the Phillies to beat at the rate the latter are being beaten.

Mates Save Graney From Gregg's Fists

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—Vern Gregg, pitcher, has a bunch of badly lacerated knuckles, and Left Fielder Jack Graney, also of the Naps, has a most beautiful black eye as the result of a fist fight after yesterday's game in Boston. Manager Birmingham denies there was any fight, but players say it was a lady while it lasted. Gregg was angered at an error by Graney which paved the way for five runs by Boston. Gregg barely won his game and he and Graney quarrelled in the dressing room. Graney was getting a pummeling when other players stopped the battle. Birmingham says the dog mascot bit Graney and that Graney was injured in batting practice.

BEDIENT Baffles Browns.

Holds Them to Three Hits While Mates Help Barely Enough.

BOSTON, June 12.—Bedient held the Browns to three singles and a double this afternoon, while the Red Sox found themselves scattered, squandered out 3 to 2 victory. Yerkes doubled in the eighth, then went to third on a putout and scored the winning run on Gardner's single. The score.

JACKSON DOES ONLY DAMAGE.

Makes Home in Ninth—Plank Too Much for Naps at Other Times.

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—The Naps opened their first series here today and were defeated by the Athletics by a score of 4 to 1. Until the ninth the visitors were shut out. In that inning Jackson batted a ball into the left field bleachers for a home run. Plank was too much for the Naps at all other times. The score.

GIANTS FALL BEHIND, BUT FORGE UP AGAIN

Pirates Wrench Away Lead in Seventh, but Next Inning Reverses Order.

HEAVY BATTING DOES IT

Two Out When Shafer, Fletcher, Doyle and Merkle Uncover Decisive Blows.

The Giants battered their way to a victory in Pittsburgh yesterday and needed the same in their business, for the Phillies hammered the Athletics into submission. The Brooklyn took a tumble in Chicago and are hanging on to third place by the skin of their teeth. The Boston made a ninth inning finish and beat the Reds.

Water Baseball to Have First Tryout

WATER baseball, the latest sport novelty, will be played for the first time to-morrow afternoon in the natatorium at Palisades Amusement Park. The contestants will be a team from Sea Gate and the nine named the Palisades Parks. The "grounds" have been laid out and both teams have had several days practice. The game offers many of the features of regular baseball with unique variations, including diving for bases instead of sliding. To-morrow's contest marks the beginning of a series of games to be played at various resorts during the summer, an eight club league having been formed.

Baltimore and Jersey City hooked up in their first scrimmage of the year in West Side Park yesterday and the Birds were short of their pluggers by a score of 2 to 2. The local manager's decision in the first attack on McTigue's pitching, carrying home four runs in the initial frame on three hits and a pair of errors. Managers Dunn and Schaffly both were out of the grounds by Umpire Mullen for too much talking. The score.

TRIPLE STEAL BY NEWARK.

It Was Just to Show Providence How League Leaders Should Act.

A triple steal was engineered by the Indians in the sixth inning of the game with Providence in Newark yesterday. The local manager, Umpire Mullen, called for a triple steal. The score.
